Greetings Board of public works,

I am making an appeal to rescind the snow removal violation that I received. I do not know exactly the timing on the snowfall we received. I have been the property owner since 1984 and have never willingly not cleared my sidewalks in a timely manner. I have a large 25 horse Toro that I use, but when we have a small amount of snow; I clear it off the sidewalk with a shovel.

As you can see on the pictures, I had used my snow blower for previous snow episodes. My practice is to come home from work and clear any additional snowfall from the sidewalk. It looks like there was a lot of traffic. This is due to being close to Stangel school.

I sincerely apologize for not clearing this off. By the way, my neighbor Angie is deceased, and the house has been turned over to the bank for the state to try to recuperate medical costs from her passing. I have done her sidewalk quite a few times this winter so her estate wouldn't keep getting snow removal violations. I have tried contacting the lawyer who is handling it to ask them if they would want it done for a very small fee. I also would be willing to cut her grass in summer to stop those assessments. If you can please help in this matter, that would be good. Thank you for hearing my request. My phone number is 920-242-5265 and my email is donrauens@yahoo.com.

Sincerely,

Donald J Rauens
