Circumstances of Claim (Attach additional sheets if necessary):

On Dec 20,2019 Detective Dave McCue came to my home and knocked on my door I answered it and he backed me up as he proceeded to walk in my house. I told him he did not have my permission to be in my home and to kindly leave. He said I'm looking for your mom and I said well she don't live here now please leave. He said do you know where she is and I said am I under arrest he said no I said then leave. He then asked do you know where I can find your mom I said it's not my day to watch her now leave. I then said am I being detained he said no I said then leave.

He said he had a complaint on my mom for child abuse.

My baby came trotting down the hall because she had just woke up from her nap and learn how to crawl out of her crib. Dave McCue then said we will be taking her with us!! I said not without a warrant or court order!! He then said let me tell you how this is gonna work you are going to give us the baby or I'm gonna charge you with oh I don't know disorderly conduct arrest you and take her anyway. He had no business even being there that day because I got the referral and it said it was a retaliatory call from my moms next door neighbor. There was no imminent danger the police were not needed they had 4 days to respond and it sounds like it's retaliation if not then it would be emotional abuse. They can not remove a child on the grounds of solely emotional abuse, because that doesn't happen imminently it happens over time. Since the alleged victim was going by her aunts for 3 days that's another reason imminent

Witnesses (names and addresses):

This is first being addressed now because I didn't have the referral
Til just recently.I just want my baby back if not then I want 100,000.
And I want a restraining order that the police can't come to my home
