Map is attached.

Street closures to include Park Street from N. 7th to N. 9th

N. 8th from State to St. Clair

Food Vendors

Portable sinks

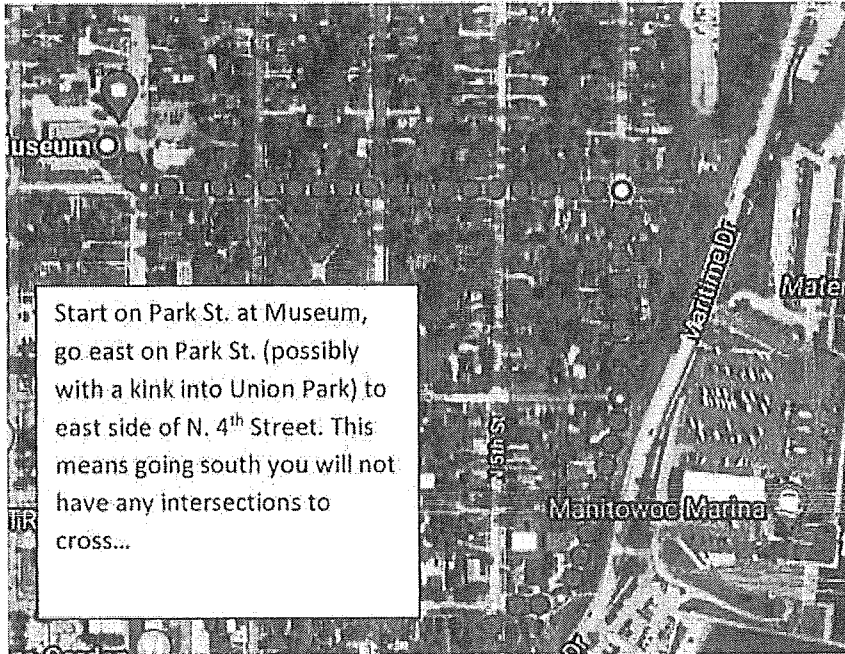

Portable Toilets

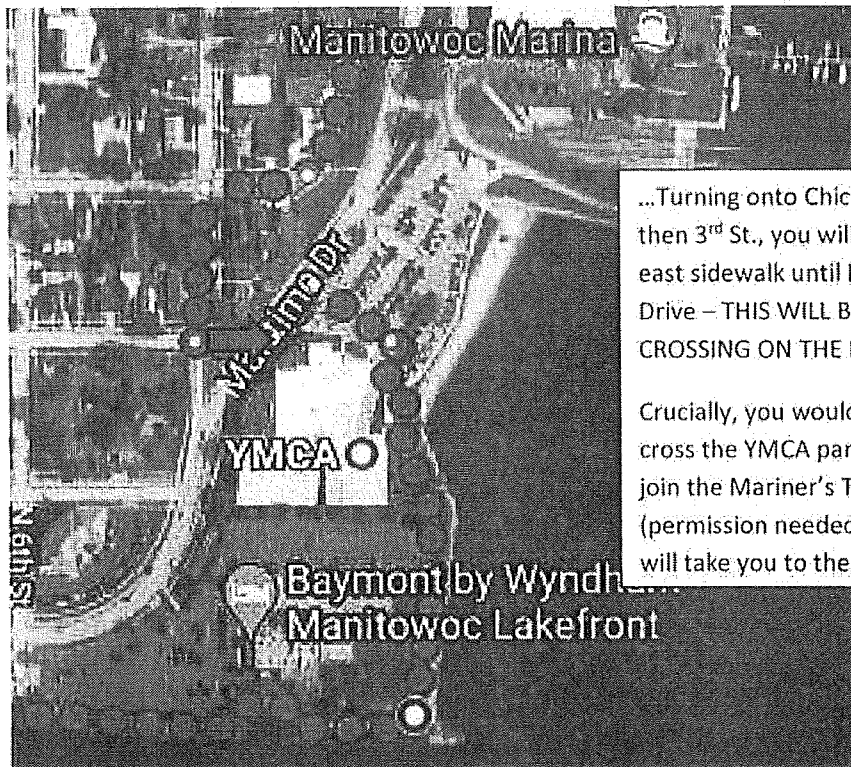

Possible 5K Course

~1.7 miles to turn around

Start on Park St. at Museum, go east on Park St. (possibly with a kink into Union Park) to east side of N. 4th Street. This means going south you will not have any intersections to cross...

...Turning onto Chicago St. and then 3rd St., you will stay on east sidewalk until Maritime Drive – THIS WILL BE THE ONLY CROSSING ON THE ROUTE.

Crucially, you would need to cross the YMCA parking lot to join the Mariner's Trail (permission needed) The trail will take you to the Cobia.

After passing the Cobia you will turn south on 8th Street at the newly renovated corner, cross the bridge on the east side, and turn east on the pathway to the river walk. Continuing down to The Wharf, you would stay on the north side of Quay St. down to the Badger Sculpture...

...and around to a point near the SS Badger welcome center for the turn-around. This will allow you to at least catch a glimpse of the bobber mural at the water treatment center.

Return exactly the way you came. Again, the only major intersection is Maritime Drive. Additionally, there may need to be officers at the Park Street Intersections.

Total length: ~3.4miles (maybe we can figure out cuts to get it to 5K)
 Total # of Public Art viewed: 9 (I think – depending on angles)
