USI (formerly ABRC) Presentation of Health Care Plan Recommendations for 2022

Shawn Esslinger, Benefit Consultant from USI, gave a presentation to the committee reviewing the 2021 benefits and the performance to date and the 2022 medical plan cost projections. The City sponsored an RFP for the Employer Sponsored Clinic and the results were reviewed. Shawn also gave recommendations for benefits for the 2022 plan year. There was a recommendation to move to a new employer sponsored clinic, Froedtert/Holy Family. We currently have the clinic through Aurora. The city is also looking at moving from Aurora to a new EAP Vendor. There are presentations taking place with two finalists for the EAP currently. There was also a recommendation to add 100% employee paid voluntary critical illness and accident insurance coverage through Mutual of Omaha.
