I would not have any objections to removing that restriction. Even at the PD, we have several employees that do not live in Manitowoc County.

At last night's Council meeting we had two bartender licenses for Council approval because the applicants did not meet the one year residency requirement for continuously residing in Manitowoc County. I don't recall a license ever being singled out for this reason although it is in our Municipal Code. I would bet that more of our bartenders do not live in Manitowoc County.

Would you have an objection to removing this requirement from our Code?

Good Morning Deborah,

I would have no problem amending this ordinance as well. I have copied Kathleen and Liz to draft an amendment to remove this portion of our ordinance. We can discuss it at our September 1st meeting.

Thanks!

The PD caught this and that is why it went to Council. I am sure a lot of others just slipped through the cracks and were approved without Council action.

I contacted Deputy Chief Jason Freiboth and he has no objection to removing this requirement from our Municipal Code.

If you are ok with it, I will place on Finance agenda for discussion.
