Mine depends if we have anyone else already permitted to sell in the parks. I don't want it to appear as though someone gets special treatment. If there's not currently selling, I'm okay with it.

I have a two-part request from a couple:

- 1) To vend novelties and popsicles at the fourth of July festivities. (Licensing – City property)
- 2) To sell popsicles via push cart in City parks during the summer months. (Parks)

As Chairs of Parks and Licensing, would either of you pre-approve your portion of the request and have Council act on July 21st?

RE: Vending during Fourth on the Shore

Dear Mr. Arredondo:

Your request for permission to vend lights, hats, bracelets and other toys and snacks at the Fourth on the Shore has been verbally agreed upon by the Chairman Jim Brey of the Licensing, Permits & Inspection Committee.

Your request to sell popsicles from a vending cart at various City Parks will be acted upon by the Common Council at the meeting of Monday, July 21, 2014.

Very truly yours,

Jennifer Hudon
