Our church would like to have a sunrise service on Easter morning from 6:00 to 7:00 am at the Red Arrow Beach location. An area will be coned off for the service to be with parking in the lot. There would be several guitar players/singers along with Pastor leading the service. This will be the second year our church is offering this service so we have no idea how many will participate. We estimate 70. Last year was cancelled bc of COVID and we are not sure who will come this year. We will distane the singers with cones, and outside will be safe with family units distanced throughout parking lot area.
