Common Council
November 19, 2012

At this time Mayor Nickels requested that Council President Jason Sladky take over as Chair.

Personnel Committee returned ordinance (12-613) to adjust the salary for the position of Mayor for the terms beginning April 2013, April 2014, April 2015 and April 2016, recommending approval (adoption) of the ordinance.

Moved by Able, second by Hennessey, to accept the Committee's report.

Moved by Sitkiewitz, second by Soeldner, to amend the ordinance by removing $74,000 in para. 1, $75,000 in para. 2, $76,000 in para. 3 and $77,000 in para. 4 and replacing them all with $73,043.

After a short discussion and upon a vote: Ayes, 6. Nays, 4. Motion to amend carried.

Moved by Sitkiewitz, second by McMeans to amend paragraph 5 of the ordinance to add the following words after the words Employee Policy Manual: "with the exception of paid time off, the Mayor will not accrue vacation/time-off benefits." and remove the words "equivalent to an exempt employee with four (4) years of service, for the term."

After discussion, it was moved by McMeans, second by Brey to offer an amendment to the amendment to substitute the words: "except for elimination of all paid time off and reserve sick time" in place of "with the exception of paid time off, the Mayor will not accrue vacation/time-off benefits."

Discussion followed.

Aldersperson Brey called the Question. Upon a vote: Ayes, 7. Nays, 3. Motion to amend carried.

Upon a vote, the ordinance, as amended, was adopted by acclamation. Ayes, 7. Nays, 3.

At this time Council President Sladky turned the meeting back to Mayor Nickels.
