Below is the email that was sent back in April regarding snow shoveling.

On a side note, I watch my husband go out and shovel snow every time it snows. Even with his schedule that includes a full time job and coaching a high school basketball team (last winter), if he's the first one out, shoveling includes many of the neighbors on our street. And the neighbors reciprocate if they are out first. To send us a $300 citation without any notice or warning that a complaint was reported, seem absurd.

Good morning,

I finally have some time to waste my time to have to put together this e-mail referencing this notice I got from the City of Manitowoc. I haven't seen anything more unbelievable in quite awhile!! First, as neighbors we snow blow parts of each other's walk. Second, when I snow blow I go up and down the whole side of the block!! As far as February 21st goes we had a game the night before. There was a heavier wet snow around that time. I know the neighbors and I did some blowing. I also re-call the trees being loaded with snow and when it warmed up a bit the snow fell out of the trees in little piles. My point is, there might have been some snow on my walk. There usually is when it snows!!! Whose even got time for this? Give me a $300 citation because I never shovel my walk??!! I'm asking that you rescind the citation and no I'm not looking for a reduction to pay half for something so ridiculous!!!

Thank you for your time and attention,

Gordy Zastrow
