RE: Trunk or Treat – October 26, 2021

Dear Organizer:

At a meeting held on January 13, 2021, the Special Events Committee approved your request to hold Trunk or Treat. Please refer to the enclosed conditions checklist for your Special Event and timely submit requested information to avoid late charges. When listing sponsors for your event, we ask that you consider including The City of Manitowoc as some or all standard event-related fees have been waived.

Because of the changing conditions surrounding the COVID- 19 Pandemic, please note that this approval is contingent upon the event taking place in accordance with any federal, state, or local regulations applicable on the date of the event. If the event is unable to be held due to regulatory limitations, any standard fees not previously waived will be refunded. The City encourages event organizers to make public service announcements regarding social distancing, mask wearing and hand washing periodically throughout the course of the event. Please also remind participants to follow all rules for the event location and those contained in the Special Events Guidebook.

Due to COVID-19, please “check-in” by emailing parkadmin@manitowoc.org at least 45 days before your event to account for changes in circumstances.

Unless special parking requests were approved, all parking regulations will be enforced.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 920-686-6950.

Sincerely,

Mackenzie Reed-Kadow
City Clerk

Maps of the City and its parks are available online at www.manitowoc.org.

In 2019, we held our first Trunk or Treat in the library parking lot. We invited 20 organizations to decorate trunks and hand out candy. Over 1,000 people showed up for our first event, and it became clear we needed a bigger parking lot! The purpose of a Trunk or Treat is to provide a free, safe community trick-or-treat event for families. Community organizations bring treats, decorate a vehicle, and families trick-or-treat in the parking lot. This way, families can also learn about all of the great organizations we have in our community as well as get a fun treat. To make this possible, we will need the city to close the Burner Boat Co. parking lot with barricades at 6AM on 10/26 to ensure no one
